"Cloud" is a common metaphor for an Internet accessible infrastructure (e.g. data storage and computing hardware) which is hidden from users. Cloud Computing makes data truly mobile and a user can simply access a chosen cloud with any internet accessible device. In Cloud Computing, IT-related capabilities are provided as services, accessible without requiring detailed knowledge of the underlying technology. Thus, many mature technologies are used as components in Cloud Computing, but still there are many unresolved and open problems. CloudCom-Asia 2015 aims to bring together researchers who work on cloud computing and related technologies.

Topics of interest of the CloudCom-Asia 2015 conference include, but are not limited to:

- Cloud Architecture
- Big Data
- Virtualization
- MapReduce, and other PaaS aspects
- Cloud Services and Applications
- Security and Privacy in Cloud
- HPC on Cloud
- IoT and Mobile on Cloud

Submission Guidelines

Submission link: <https://www.easychair.org/conferences/?conf=cloudcomasia2015>

All submitted manuscripts will be peer-reviewed by the program committee members. Concurrency and Computation: Practice and Experience (CCPE, SCI indexed) and Journal of Supercomputing (SCI indexed) have confirmed to support the publication of CloudCom-Asia 2015 papers. Based on the review results, top-ranked accepted conference papers will be published by the two journals. Other accepted conference papers with good quality, together with all of the accepted workshop papers, will be published in conference proceedings, in LNCS.

At least one author of all the accepted papers should register and give a presentation in the conference.
